Application No.

Continuation of 2. NOTE: The examiner was pursuaded that the prior obviousness rejection of Adell in view of Reppas had been overcome by the purposed amendments. However, the examiner is not sure if Applicant's specification relating to the claimed "upcoming, unexpected road hazard" definitively excludes Adell alone. In particular neither the specification, nor the claims excludes the "warner" as also being the claimed "upcoming, unexpected road hazard." Also, there is nothing to exclude the conventional vehicle lights as the claimed lamp. None the less, the examiner must search for a system that does not have a nsors, or detectors which initiat the warning, based upon Applicant's persuasive arguments.
